

09/6/3/62

POLYIMIDE RESIN AND CARBON FIBER MOLDED TUBE CLAMP

ABSTRACT

A process for forming a molded polymer resin fiber tube clamp, as well as the tube clamp formed by that process. Continuous top and bottom plies provide increased resistance to delamination/cracking as they sandwich a filler material. The tube clamp is free from exposed fiber ends so that no wear is produced on a tube being clamped.

5